"What a wonderful way to experience the many cultural influences of our southern heritage!"
(Norma McDonald, Principal, North Duplin Elementary)

"Charles Pettee visited Gunn Memorial Public Library on May 12, 2010 and delighted our pre-school patrons, exceptional teens and senior citizens with his gifts of music and story-songs. Charles is a natural born performer with the spirit of a "Bluegrass Boy"!

His mandolin, guitar, harmonica, banjo and voice echoed history as we followed him on a journey to the past. What a magical morning of listening and learning and it is obvious that he loves to share his music as much as we enjoyed hearing it."

-- Rebecca Dellinger, Children's Services, Gunn Memorial Public Library

Mr. Pettee's programs are approved for grant subsidies from the NC Arts Council, United Arts Council, and CAPS.
