

HEAR THE SOUND PRODUCTIONS PRESENTS

2011 Summer Reading Programs with Charles Pettee: "The Story of Bluegrass Music"!

Wielding guitar, banjo, mandolin, harmonica, and an engaging vocal style, this world-travelling musician unfolds the story of southern string music with songs and stories, all featuring audience interaction, clapping, and group singing.

"You shared your talents and knowledge in such a way that created a yearning to know more... Anyone that experiences your presentation will leave a little richer in their appreciation of American folk and bluegrass music, and many celebrating their own heritage." (Iris Ellington, Northwoods Elementary)

- * Mr. Pettee is approved artist with NC and SC Arts Councils, and the CAPS Artist Roster
- * Now working on his 13th CD!

- * Sound system and travel included with fees
- * Discounts available for multiple bookings in same area

"Once upon a time, on a farm in the Appalachian mountains, a young boy named Bill Monroe picked up a mandolin..."

"Of the numerous programs presented at our libraries annually, the amazing Bluegrass performance of musician Charles Pettee stands out as one of the all time best." (Diane Williams, Mgr. Children's Services, York County Library)

"His mandolin, guitar, harmonica, banjo and voice echoed history as we followed him on a journey to the past. What a magical morning of listening and learning and it is obvious that he loves to share his music as much as we enjoyed hearing it." (Rebecca Dellinger, Children's Services, Gunn Memorial Public Library)

For more information, please visit www.charlespettee.com email charles.pettee@gmail.com

Phone: (919) 967-1381 ... Charles Pettee/ Hear the Sound Productions, 318 Burris Pl, Chapel Hill, NC 27516