

CHARLES PETTEE'S HEAR THE SOUND MUSIC SHOWS PRESENTS:

"Catch the Bluegrass Bug!"

Featuring guitar, banjo, mandolin and harmonica, and clapping and singing for all!

An interactive musical performance for everyone, for the 2008 Summer Reading Programs, and related family programs throughout North Carolina

Offered by Charles Pettee, founding member of The Shady Grove Band
"One of our state's musical treasures" – Raleigh, News and Observer

See Charles "spider-pluck" the guitar!

Hear and enjoy the bluegrass instrument known as the "tater bug"!

Humming honeybees, I hear a harmonica!

Sing along w/ "Shoo Fly Swing," "Ain't No Flies on Me," and more!

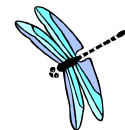

How many rhymes and bug sounds can we add to the song 'Mole in the Ground'?

"A gifted musician, Charles Pettee, provided a unique family musical program... Young and old alike traveled a musical journey through time pausing to clap, howl, and sing along with Charles. It was a fun filled family program!"
(Peggy Bailey, Youth Services Librarian, Ashe County Library)

"What a wonderful way to experience the many cultural influences of our southern heritage!"
(Norma McDonald, Principal, N. Duplin Elementary)

"Of the numerous programs presented at our libraries annually, the amazing bluegrass performance of musician Charles Pettee stands out as one of the all-time best."
(Diane Williams, Manager of Children's Services, York Co. Library)
