

CHARLES PETTEE'S HEAR THE SOUND MUSIC SHOWS PRESENTS: "GETTING CREATIVE WITH BLUEGRASS!"

Mandolin, Guitar, Banjo, Harmonica, and Voice converge this summer, 2009 in a new way, (which is the tradition of southern string music)!

An interactive musical performance for everyone, for the 2009 Summer Reading Programs, and related family programs throughout the South

Bluegrass music: a creative mix of sounds
from Europe and sounds from Africa!

Crazy clapping!

Everybody can get involved -
-make up new rhymes!

New verses to old songs!

Bodywork: How many ways can you keep the beat?

"A gifted musician, Charles Pettee, provided a unique family musical program... Young and old alike traveled a musical journey through time pausing to clap, howl, and sing along with Charles. It was a fun filled family program!"
(Peggy Bailey, Youth Services Librarian, Ashe County Library)

"What a wonderful way to experience the many cultural influences of our southern heritage!"
(Norma McDonald, Principal, N. Duplin Elementary)

"Of the numerous programs presented at our libraries annually, the amazing bluegrass performance of musician Charles Pettee stands out as one of the all-time best."
(Diane Williams, Manager of Children's Services, York Co. Library)
